FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hitachi Solutions and Perceptive Software to Sponsor CFMA's 2014 Annual Conference and Exhibition

Hitachi Solutions to showcase two new releases of construction solutions for Microsoft Dynamics AX

IRVINE, U.S. - May 14, 2014- Hitachi Solutions America, a leading global provider of Microsoft Dynamics AX and Microsoft Dynamics CRM solutions, will be a sponsor and exhibitor at the CFMA 2014 Annual Conference and Exhibition hosted by the Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA) in Las Vegas from June 7 to 11. Joining Hitachi Solutions America at the conference in booth 229 will be Microsoft and construction industry partner, Perceptive Software showcasing their enterprise content management software.

CFMA's Annual Conference and Exhibition has been a premier source of information on construction financial planning for over 30 years. Each year, the annual conference attracts hundreds of construction financial professionals and highlights technology providers ready to solve the industry's toughest challenges to improve how construction professionals do business.

"This year, we're eager to showcase two of our newest releases of Microsoft Dynamics-based construction industry solutions, BUILD//AX and PAY//AX," said Salim Faroukh, Senior Director-Industry Solutions, Hitachi Solutions America, Business Solution Group. "We look forward to showing construction professionals how our solutions can help them better govern their job lifecycles from estimating to costing and more efficiently manage their payroll employee and contractor workforce."

Created by Hitachi Solutions America, BUILD//AX and PAY//AX are industry solutions designed for mid-to-large firms, specialized and general contractors, and other construction firms looking to streamline and automate processes, gain real-time visibility, maintain tighter control over their jobs, and improve cost controls, reporting, and compliance.

By stopping by Hitachi Solutions' booth 229, conference attendees will gain exclusive free access to synchronized audio and PowerPoints of all approved conference sessions in a convenient online educational library. That way, attendees have any-time access to watch sessions they missed and review sessions they attended.
